

ACADEMIC DEAN

OXFORD GRADUATE SCHOOL

The mission of Oxford Graduate School is to equip interdisciplinary Christian scholar practitioners to sociologically integrate religion and society in order to transform the family, church, and community worldwide. Oxford Graduate School is not a seminary; instead its mission is to prepare the kind of cultural leaders that are needed in the home, the church, government, business, education, and every context where positive social change can be effected.

Reporting directly to the President, the Academic Dean will lead the school in all matters relating to delivering to our students the best in graduate distance education with a view to their becoming leaders in their respective fields as holistic Christian scholar practitioners. Specifically, s/he will provide leadership and insight in the hiring, supervision, evaluation and retention of faculty, chair the Faculty Senate, play a key role in the President's Council, supervise the chair of the Graduate Research Council, and assure OGS' adherence to all THEC, TRACS, and Title IV reporting requirements.

Qualifications and Skills:

- Terminal degree from an accredited institution in Education, Educational Administration, or a related field.
- Minimum of five years' experience teaching in an academic field.
- Minimum of three years' significant administrative experience (e.g. Department head).
- Documented record of research and involvement in professional associations.
- Flexibility, creativity and ability to join in the life of the community
- Calm, collaborative manner with strong interpersonal skills. Adept at conflict resolution.
- Superb communicator, both in writing and as a public speaker.
- Excellent working knowledge and understanding of technology.
- Combines vision with very strong organizational skills.

Salary: Based on experience

Contact Information:

Donald E. Price, DTh
President/CEO
Oxford Graduate School
500 Oxford Dr.
Dayton, TN 37321
dprice@ogs.edu

