

Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools – TRACS

American Christian College & Seminary (ACCS) accreditation status history with TRACS:

Candidacy — February 27, 1992

Accreditation — September 23, 1998, through May 31, 2005

Closure — August 31, 2005

---

Official TRACS Statement on American Christian College & Seminary (ACCS):

American Christian College and Seminary officially closed in 2005. TRACS accredited the institution through May 31, 2005, and the student records, as provided by ACCS, are housed at Randall University in Moore, Oklahoma. The ACCS/ABCS Alumni Association maintains a web site:

<https://www.abcs.edu/temp.htm>

Transcripts are available for the former students of American Christian College and Seminary (ACCS), formerly American Bible College & Seminary (ABCS), and formerly The University of Biblical Studies & Seminary (UBSS) of Oklahoma City, through the ACCS Records Trust, from the following source:

ACCS Records Trust

C/O Randall University
3701 South I-35 Service Road
Moore, OK 73160
Phone (405) 912-9000 FAX: (405) 912-9050

Web page: www.ru.edu/alumni/accs

Transcript requests should include:

- Your first and last name (any previous names used, such as maiden name)
- Social security number preferred (at least the last four are required)
- Signed request
- Address when last attending (if possible)
- The address of the institution you wish to transfer to
- Self-addressed envelopes for personal copies

Randall University does not have access to previous ACCS administration information or records that were not transferred at the time of ACCS closure in 2005.