Introduction

This Steps Toward Accreditation manual is designed to guide institutions through Applicant Status, Candidate Status, Accredited Status, and Reaffirmation of Accredited Status with the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS).

This manual outlines the steps for each of the processes required in moving from one phase of recognition with TRACS to the next. Specific questions regarding the accreditation process should be directed to the TRACS office.

All Accreditation Standards, which serve as the basis of the process toward accreditation, are available in the Accreditation Manual. The Accreditation Manual may be downloaded from the TRACS website.

NOTE: All of the processes associated with the various progressive categories of recognition with TRACS, including the submission of documents and the fulfilment of other category specific requirements, shall be conducted via the TRACS portal (tracs.edvera.com). Access to and instructions for using the TRACS portal shall be provided to institutions appropriately.

Categories of Recognition

The following are the progressive categories of recognition with TRACS through which institutions will successively proceed:

- Corresponding: An institution that has made initial contact with TRACS.
- Applicant: An institution whose application has been approved by the TRACS Application Review Committee (ARC) having demonstrated compliance with the Institutional Eligibility Requirements (IERs) via the application process.
- Candidate: An institution that has been granted Candidate (pre-accredited) status by action of the Accreditation Commission, indicating that the institution has demonstrated compliance with the Institutional Eligibility Requirements (IERs) via the Self-Study and Evaluation Team Visit processes.
  - Candidate institutions are eligible to apply for participation in federal financial aid programs.
  - Credits granted by institutions holding Candidate status are generally transferable to other institutions, according to the practices of the receiving institution.
- Accredited: An institution that has been granted Accredited status by action of the Accreditation Commission, indicating that the institution has demonstrated substantive compliance with TRACS Standards via the Self-Study and Evaluation Team Visit processes.
- Reaffirmation of Accreditation: An institution that has been granted Reaffirmation of its Accredited status by action of the Accreditation Commission, indicating that the institution has demonstrated substantive compliance with TRACS Standards via the Self-Study and Evaluation Team Visit processes.

Institutional Eligibility Requirements

The Institutional Eligibility Requirements (IERs) are (1) the Standards associated with The TRACS Accreditation Requirements (IERs #1 - #16) and (2) the Standards noted as Federal Requirements (IER #17) with which an institution must demonstrate compliance in order to be approved as an “Applicant” and subsequently authorized to begin the Self-Study process for consideration by the Accreditation Commission for “Candidate” level recognition. (Note: Some Federal Requirements may not pertain to all applying institutions, i.e., Title IV Participation. If a Federal Requirement does not apply to your institution, simply note such in the appropriate response area during the application process.)

Achieving Applicant Status

Institutions that have submitted an application (Application Compliance Checklist / ACC) to TRACS are considered corresponding institutions, but not member institutions. Applicant status is granted when an institution's ACC has been approved by the Application Review Committee.

1. Initial Communication and Orientation

- a. Institutions interested in pursuing membership with TRACS should complete and submit the Initial Contact Data form found on the TRACS website. (tracs.org/start)
- b. Upon submission of the Initial Contact Data form, the institution will receive a follow up email with links to pertinent TRACS documents for review. If, after review, the institution decides to continue the process, the institution will submit the Institutional Profile data using the link provided in the email.
- c. TRACS staff will review the Institutional Profile form to determine the institution's eligibility for membership.
- d. If the institution appears eligible for membership, the institution is assigned a TRACS staff representative. At this point, the institution is considered a "Corresponding" institution.
- e. The institution and assigned TRACS staff representative will schedule the required Application Orientation. The Application Orientation may take place at either the institution's campus, at the TRACS office, at the Application Workshop conducted at the TRACS Annual Conference or virtually via teleconference. If the Orientation takes place at the institution's campus, the institution is expected to cover the staff representative's travel expenses. There is no fee associated with the Application Orientation meeting.
- f. After completing the Application Orientation, the individual identified by the institution as the accreditation liaison will be granted access to the TRACS portal in order for the institution to begin the application process.

2. Institutional Submissions

The application process includes the completion and submission of the following via the TRACS portal:

- a. The Application Compliance Checklist along with all required supporting documents
- b. The non-refundable Application Fee according to the current fee schedule

3. Applicant Review Committee Procedures and Determination

- a. The Applicant Review Committee (ARC) will conduct an initial review of the Application materials. Financial information and documentation are reviewed by the TRACS Vice President of Finance.
- b. The ARC makes one of the following determinations regarding the institution's application. The institution will be notified of the ARC's determination automatically via the TRACS portal.
  - Approve the institution's application - At this point, the institution is considered an "Applicant" institution and may begin the Self-Study Proposal process.
  - Defer the institution's application - If the institution's application is deferred, the application will be reverted to the institution with staff comments citing areas that need to be clarified and any additional documentation that is needed. If the application is initially deferred by the ARC, the institution will be allowed no more than two additional opportunities to submit clarifying information and/or additional documentation. If the application is not approved after two subsequent submissions, the application will be denied.

- Deny the institution's application - If the institution's application is denied, the institution will be informed of the reason(s) for the denial. If the application is denied, the institution may reapply after one year.

NOTE: Submitting an application does not guarantee the institution will achieve "Applicant" status and be permitted to move toward Candidacy.

Achieving Candidate Status

Candidate Status offers institutions the opportunity to establish an initial, formal, and publicly recognized pre-accredited status with TRACS. Institutions seeking Candidacy must provide evidence of sound planning processes, possess adequate resources to carry out their operations, and be able to achieve Accredited status within the prescribed time period. This status does not guarantee the institution will achieve Accredited status.

Per Federal Regulations, the maximum time period allowed for a Candidate institution to achieve Accredited status is five years. An institution that does not achieve Accredited status within the five-year period will be removed from Candidacy and must wait a minimum of one year before reapplying.

Institutions that have been deferred for Candidate status may reappear before the Accreditation Commission when the deferred institution is able to demonstrate that specified deficiencies have been corrected.

1. Self-Study Proposal

- a. The institution is notified that it has achieved Applicant Status and can proceed toward Candidate status.
- b. The institution downloads Self-Study Guidelines from the TRACS website.

3. Self-Study Process

- a. Via the TRACS portal, the institution completes and submits the Self-Study Report and supporting documentation according to the established timelines. - b. TRACS staff will review the Self-Study Report and all supporting documents to determine readiness for review by the members of the Evaluation Team.
- c. Once the Self-Study Report is approved by TRACS staff and the travel advance has been received, the members of the Evaluation Team are granted access to the Self-Study Report and supporting documentation via the TRACS portal.

4. Evaluation Team Visit

- a. The institution hosts the Evaluation Team according to the established dates.

- b. At this appearance, the institution will update the Accreditation Commission concerning any progress that has been made at the institution since the submission of their Compliance Report and will be given the opportunity to answer any questions raised by the Accreditation Commission.
- c. After deliberation, the Accreditation Commission will render and announce one of the following decisions regarding the institution's bid for Candidate status:
  - Grant the institution Candidate status
  - Defer the institution's request for Candidate status based on specified deficiencies
  - Deny the institution's request for Candidate status
- d. The President of TRACS will officially notify the institution of the decision of the Accreditation Commission by letter. The notification will also provide required follow-up information for institutional action if applicable.

7. Compliance Reports for Candidate Institutions

- a. Within five years from the Accreditation Commission's approval for Candidate status, an institution must demonstrate compliance with any unresolved determinations of non-compliance with TRACS Standards noted in the Evaluation Team Report.

- b. The institution downloads Self-Study Guidelines from the TRACS website.
- c. Via the TRACS portal, the institution completes and submits the Self-Study Proposal, the current required Change of Status Review fee, the staff travel advance fee, and the staff visit fee. (see fee schedule)

2. Staff Self-Study Visit

- a. Once the Self-Study Proposal and applicable fees have been submitted, TRACS staff will contact the institution to set up a date for a staff visit (either in person or virtually) with the institution.
- b. TRACS staff will provide the institution with information related to the visit in advance.
- c. The staff visit will ensure that the institution is prepared to move forward in the Self-Study process, provide guidance to the institution in moving forward in the Self-Study process, and finalize the dates for the Evaluation Team Visit.

3. Self-Study Process

Interim Fifth-Year Review

TRACS institutions that have been granted a ten-year Reaffirmation of their Accredited status are required to participate in an Interim Fifth-Year Review (IFYR) which includes the completion and submission of an Interim Fifth-Year Review Compliance Checklist and supporting documents.

The IFYR focuses on the TRACS Institutional Eligibility Requirements (IERs) and occurs during the fifth year of the institution's Reaffirmation status.

The Interim Fifth-Year Review Compliance Checklist will be completed and submitted via the TRACS portal along with the appropriate fee and will consist of a narrative addressing the institution's compliance with the IERs along with documentation supporting each compliance narrative.

The various processes involved in the IFYR are detailed in TRACS Policy BP310 located in the TRACS Policies and Procedures Manual. The TRACS Policies and Procedures Manual can be accessed on the TRACS website. (tracs.org)
